Stadiums [edit]

Since the founding of the I-League, Churchill Brothers have mainly played at the Fatorda Stadium in Margao, a ground shared over the years with other Goan clubs including Dempo, Salgaocar, Sporting Clube de Goa and Vasco.[70] The club has also used the Tilak Maidan Stadium in Vasco for both I-League and Goa Professional League fixtures.

During the 2012–13 I-League season the club temporarily played at the Duler Stadium in Mapusa while Fatorda was being renovated for the 2013 Lusophony Games and Tilak Maidan was being upgraded to AFC standards.[71] For the 2013 AFC Cup the club used the Shri Shiv Chhatrapati Sports Complex in Pune as its home ground. In 2022 the club moved to the GMC Athletic Stadium in Bambolim,[72] and in the 2024–25 I-League season it used the Raia Panchayat Ground in Raia.[73]

Rivalries [edit]

Churchill Brothers has a long-standing rivalry with the fellow Goan side Dempo, known as the "Goan Derby".[74] The club also has rivalries with two other Goan sides, Sporting Clube de Goa[75] and Salgaocar, whom it met in the I-League and continues to face in the Goa Professional League.[76]

Churchill Brothers SC Goa, commonly known as Churchill Brothers, is an Indian professional football club based in Margao, Goa. The club competes in the Indian Super League (ISL), the top tier of the Indian football league system, from the 2026–27 season, having acquired the sporting licence previously held by Jamshedpur FC in August 2026.[a] For most of its history, the club played in the National Football League and its successor, the I-League.[b]

The club has won the I-League title twice, and finished among the top three on nine other occasions in the national league.[9][10] It has also won eight Goa League titles, three Durand Cups[11][12] and a Federation Cup.[13] Churchill Brothers were ranked the fourth-best Indian club and 648th in the world in the International Federation of Football History & Statistics rankings for the decade 2001–2010.[14] The club is commonly nicknamed "The Red Machines".[15]

Churchill Brothers represented India in the 1997–98 Asian Club Championship, but were eliminated in the first round by the Vietnamese side Dong Thap, losing 2–1 on aggregate.[21] In 1998 the club signed Bassim Yonan, the first Iraqi footballer to play in
